Relationship with Other Organisations

Introduction

The Sri Lanka Roll Ball Federation (RBFSL) is the sole and legitimate governing body for Roll Ball in Sri Lanka. Established to promote, regulate, and develop the sport nationally, RBFSL operates in full alignment with the International Roll Ball Federation (IRBF) and the Asian Roll Ball Federation (ARBF). Since its inception, the Federation has consistently expanded Roll Ball's reach, ensuring that the sport is accessible to schools, communities, and athletes across the island.

Legitimacy & Exclusivity

- RBFSL is the only recognized national authority for the sport of Roll Ball in Sri Lanka.
- No other organization in the country is recognized by the Ministry of Sports of Sri Lanka, the National Olympic Committee of Sri Lanka (NOC SL), or the International Roll Ball Federation (IRBF) for Roll Ball activities.
- RBFSL represents Sri Lanka internationally and is the official national unit affiliated with IRBF and ARBF.

Working Relationships with Stakeholders

1. Government & Institutions

- Collaborates with the Ministry of Sports, Ministry of Education, and Provincial Councils to introduce Roll Ball into schools and community sports programs.
- Engages with universities and the University Grants Commission to integrate Roll Ball into inter-university sports calendars.
- Liaises with the National Sports Development Department for recognition, policy support, and athlete development programs.

2. Provincial & District Associations

- RBFSL maintains a federated structure with provincial and district-level associations democratically elected and operating under its constitution.
- These associations are responsible for organizing provincial championships, school leagues, and grassroots programs.
- Regular audits and governance reviews ensure accountability and transparency.

3. International Bodies

- Works directly with the International Roll Ball Federation (IRBF) and Asian Roll Ball Federation (ARBF).
- Engages with other national federations for bilateral exchanges, friendly tournaments, and international exposure for Sri Lankan athletes.

No Competing Entity in Sri Lanka

- There is no parallel or rival federation organizing Roll Ball at the national level in Sri Lanka.
- No other entity has recognition from the Ministry of Sports, NOCSL, IRBF, or ARBF.
- RBFSL is the exclusive authority to represent Sri Lanka in all international Roll Ball matters.

Commitment to Standards

RBFSL aligns itself with international sporting values and best practices:

- Good Governance – Democratic elections, constitutional compliance, financial transparency.
- Sport for All – Equal opportunities for women, rural youth, and underprivileged communities.
- International Engagement – Active participation in Asian and global Roll Ball events.
- Education & Innovation – Digital registration, coaching certification, and e-learning for referees and coaches.

Conclusion

The Sri Lanka Roll Ball Federation (RBFSL) is the undisputed, exclusive, and legitimate governing authority of Roll Ball in Sri Lanka. With strong links to government institutions, a growing grassroots presence, and recognition by international federations, RBFSL stands as the official custodian of the sport, committed to its development and representation at the global stage.
